

School PublicationsA. Individual School-Sponsored Publications

All school-sponsored publications shall be cleared for publication by the school principal. The principal shall be responsible for advising on the format, style, composition and accuracy of content.

B. Central Office Publications

All publications developed under the direction of the central office staff for distribution to the community shall be submitted to the office of the division superintendent prior to publication.

Editor's Note

See also school board policy #2-5